

UAlbany Project MyStory Application | albany.edu/mystory

Thank you for your interest in joining the Project MyStory Team. We are a community building effort to help students better acclimate to UAlbany and to work more effectively toward their goals. Through videos, blogs, posters, small group meetings, community outreach, and presentations, students help other students by sharing their experiences.

Name	Student ID
UAlbany E-mail	Cell Phone No.
Major/s and Minor/s	Anticipated Graduation Date
GPA

I am applying for:

- RSSW190 – 35 Hours, 1 Credit S/U
- RSSW290 – 100 Hours, 3 Credit S/U
- Non-Credit Service
- RSSW291 – 60 Hours, 2 Credits S/U
- RSSW390 – 100 Hours, 3 Credit A-E

Please submit a typewritten statement, answering the following questions:

1. How did you hear about Project MyStory?
2. Why do you want to contribute to UAlbany through participation in Project MyStory?
3. All volunteers select a theme to guide their workshops, blogs, vlogs and other presentations throughout the semester. MyStory activities focus on the development of the whole person as it relates, directly or indirectly, to students' academic success.
 - a. What theme have you selected?
 - b. Why did you choose this theme?
 - c. What do you hope other students will gain from attending your programs, reading your blog posts, and/or viewing your vlogs?

How do you anticipate using your hours? Check all that apply. If you are approved we will discuss the breakdown of your service hours.

ALL of the options below, include the option to include community outreach with Skribblers and Club Zoe, local organizations that serve youth in the Capital Region.

- Blogging (Bloggers, submit posts weekly throughout the semester)
- Vlogging (Vloggers earn approximately 10-15 hours per video, depending on the content, length, and editing needs)
- "Interactive Tabling", Workshops, Story Circles, etc.
- Community outreach with Skribblers or Club Zoe, local organizations that serve youth in the Capital Region.
- Technical Support (Making flyers, updating our blog site, creating publications, maintaining our social media accounts, etc.)

Please send this form and your statement to ualbanymystory@gmail.com.